

K-LOVE is a christian radio station that is an important part of my life. There are no local christian radio stations. K-Love is a professionally run radio station, unlike many local stations broadcast by college students. K-Love supports that local community. They have a representative based in OKC who speaks at local christian events. They are very much a part of OKC. They broadcast local church events, and frequently come to OKC to broadcast from the state fair, etc.

If K-Love were replaced by an LPFM broadcaster, many christians would lose an important part of their lives. In addition, K-Love has pastors on staff to take calls from people all over the country who may not have anyone else to talk to.

They are currently having a pledge drive, since they are public-supported. The stories I hear from listeners stating how important K-Love is to their families is very touching.

I support K-Love with my money and my prayers. K-Love is one of the few radio stations that a parent can feel good about their kids listening to. They have a positive, encouraging impact on me, and many others in the community. You can tell by all of the K-Love bumper stickers I see every day that they would be sorely missed.
